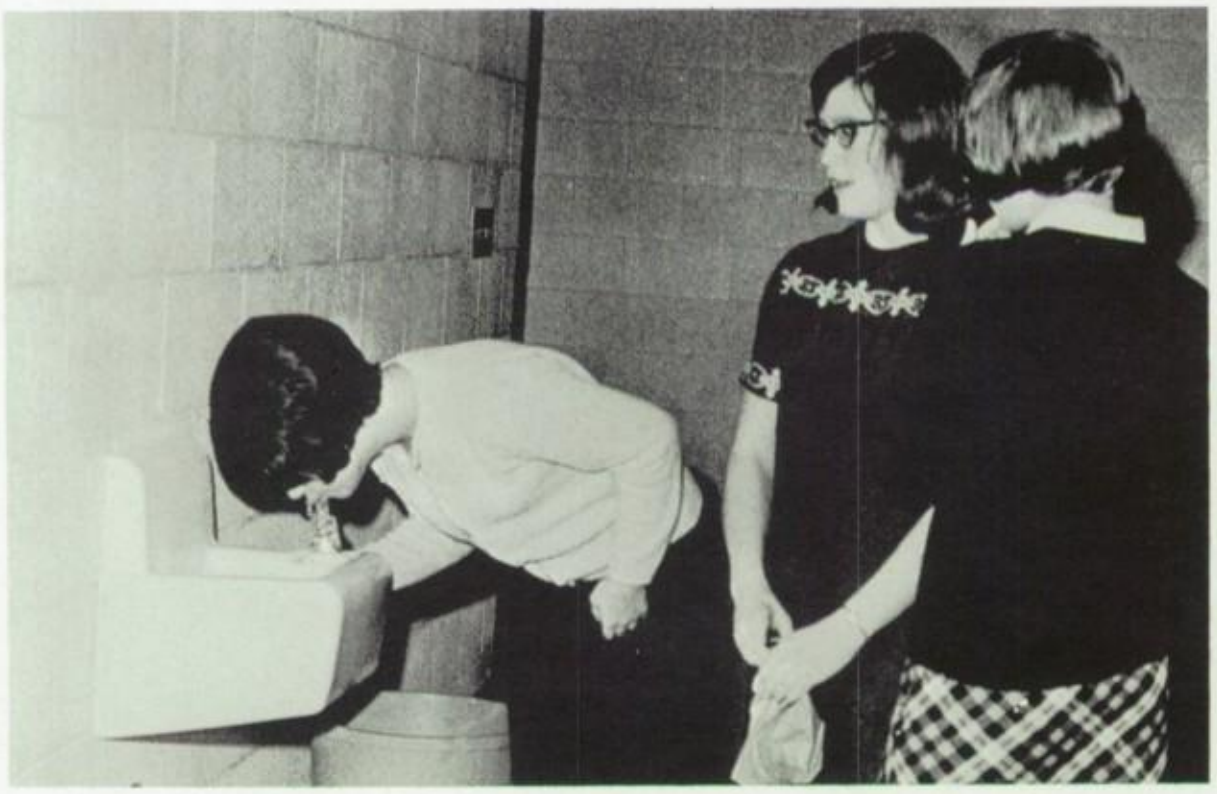
Dedication

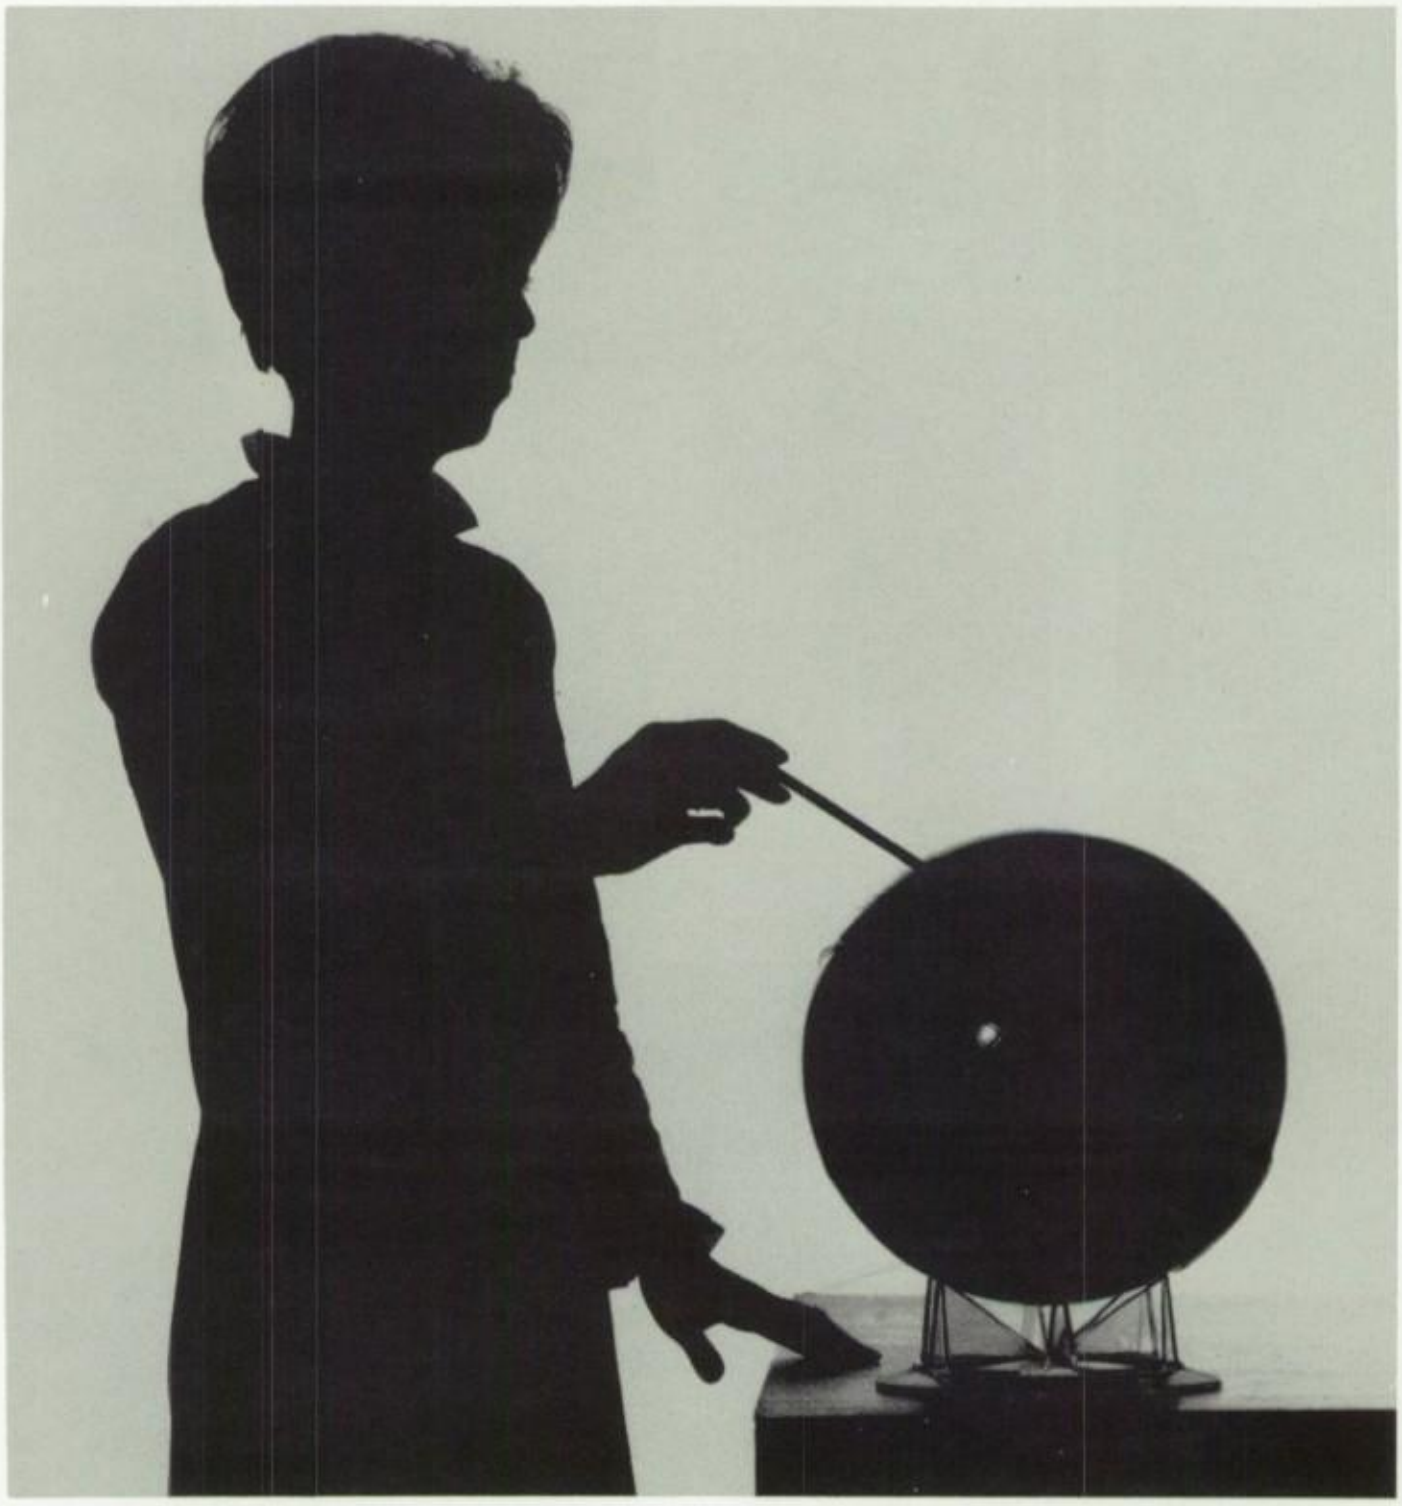
The 1967-68 Scribe Staff would like to dedicate this yearbook to the late Mr. Charles Joslin. During his many years at Marlette, he was a credit to our community. During the school years of 1952-53 and 1953-54, he taught English and 7th and 8th Grade Social Studies. He had been Elementary Principal from 1953 up to 1967 when he retired. Mr. Joslin has done a great many things for our school system and we are sure that he will always be remembered in the hearts of the students.

Who says that teaching isn't an easy way to make a living?

Here's our warden patrolling the north hall.

This is what can happen to you if you are caught chewing gum.





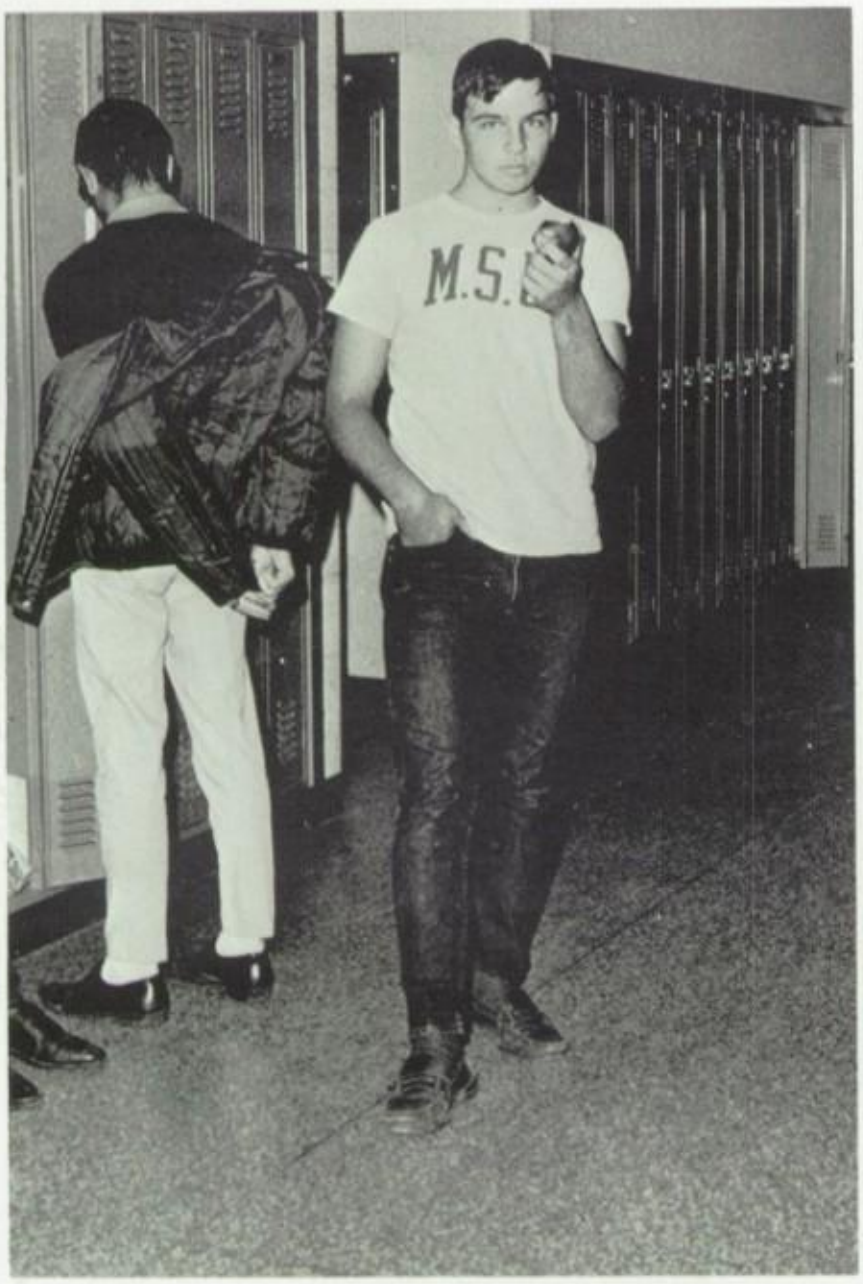
FACULTY

Mrs. Thompson, a Jr. High English teacher helps one of her interested students.

Mr. Green, the 8th grade math teacher explains a problem to the class.

Our play director, Mr. Janes, English and Journalism teacher asks, "Who is that knocking on my wall?"

Mr. Walker, high school coach, and math teacher asks, "Did I ever show you my elbow injuries from football?"



"You'll never guess what I have in my pocket."

"Well, if you want my opinion ..."

Ed and Connie conversing over lunch.

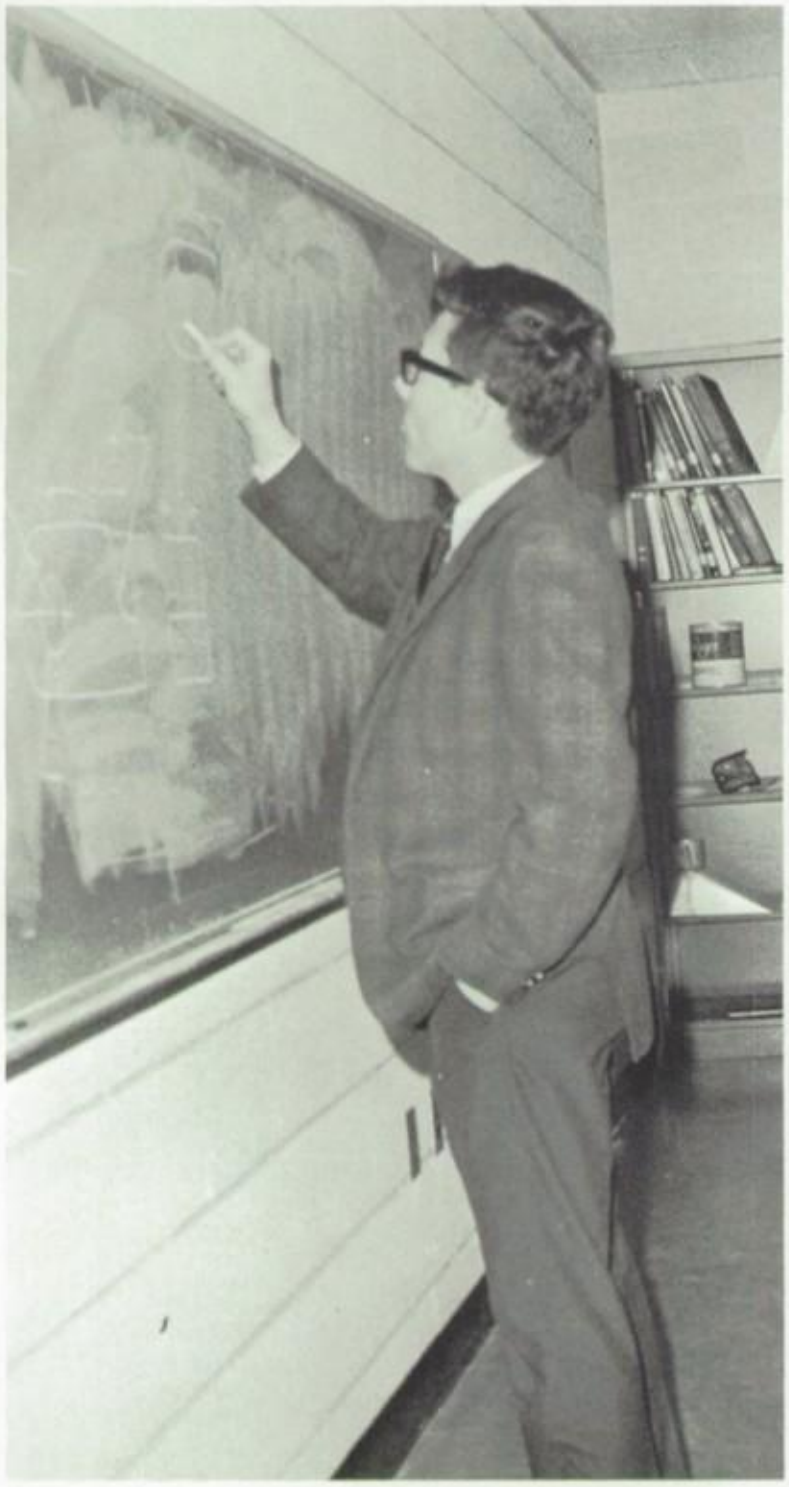
Glen seems to be enjoying the Junior High party.

Mr. Thrall, the Chemistry and Adv. Chemistry and Biology teacher, demonstrates how to use a slide rule.

Mrs. Ross, the librarian, demonstrates some of the new equipment.

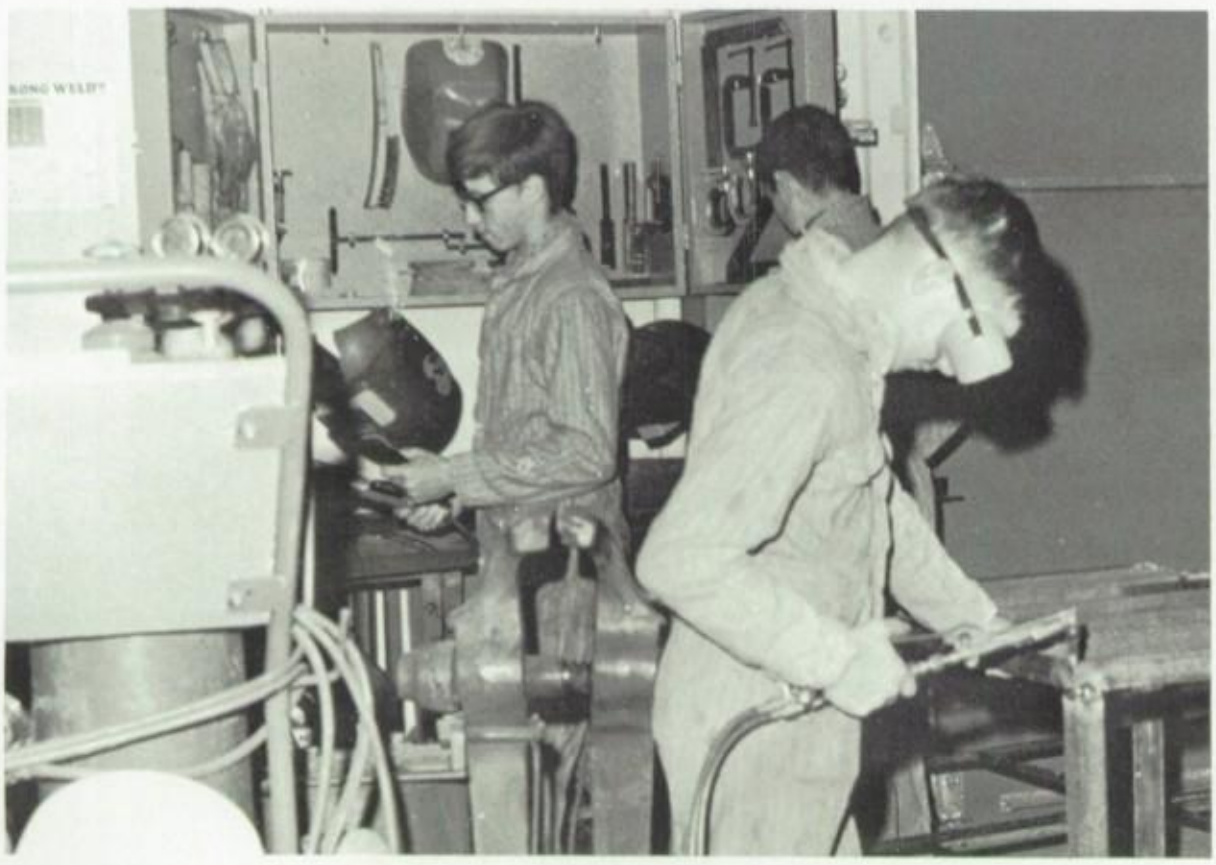
"I know that I know the answer," says Mr. James Sheridan the Junior High math teacher.

Mrs. Sharon McLean, the Commercial teacher, shows the students how to type.



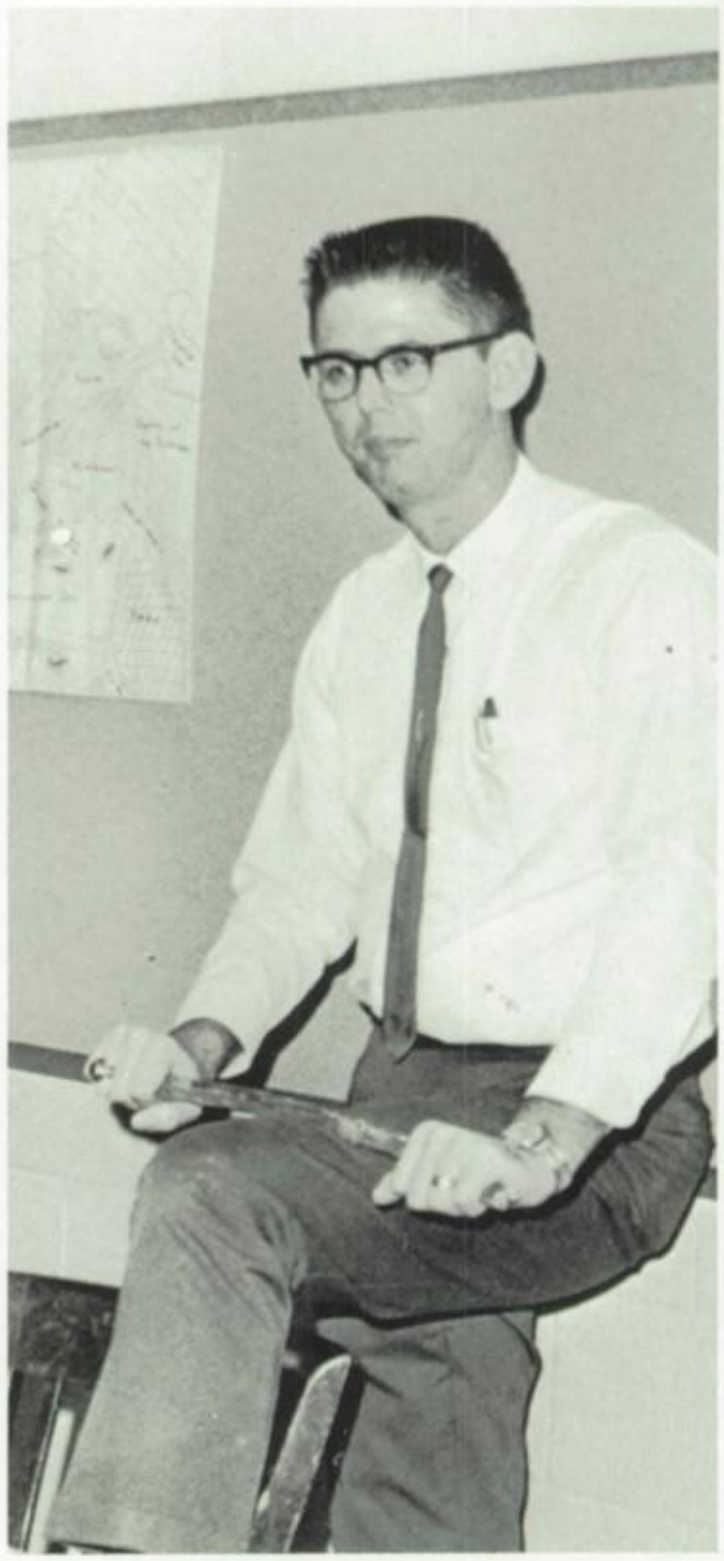
Mr. Green, the drafting and metal shop teacher, draws a diagram on the board.

"Oh come on, guys, not another picture," says Mr. Kunkel, the arts and crafts teacher.



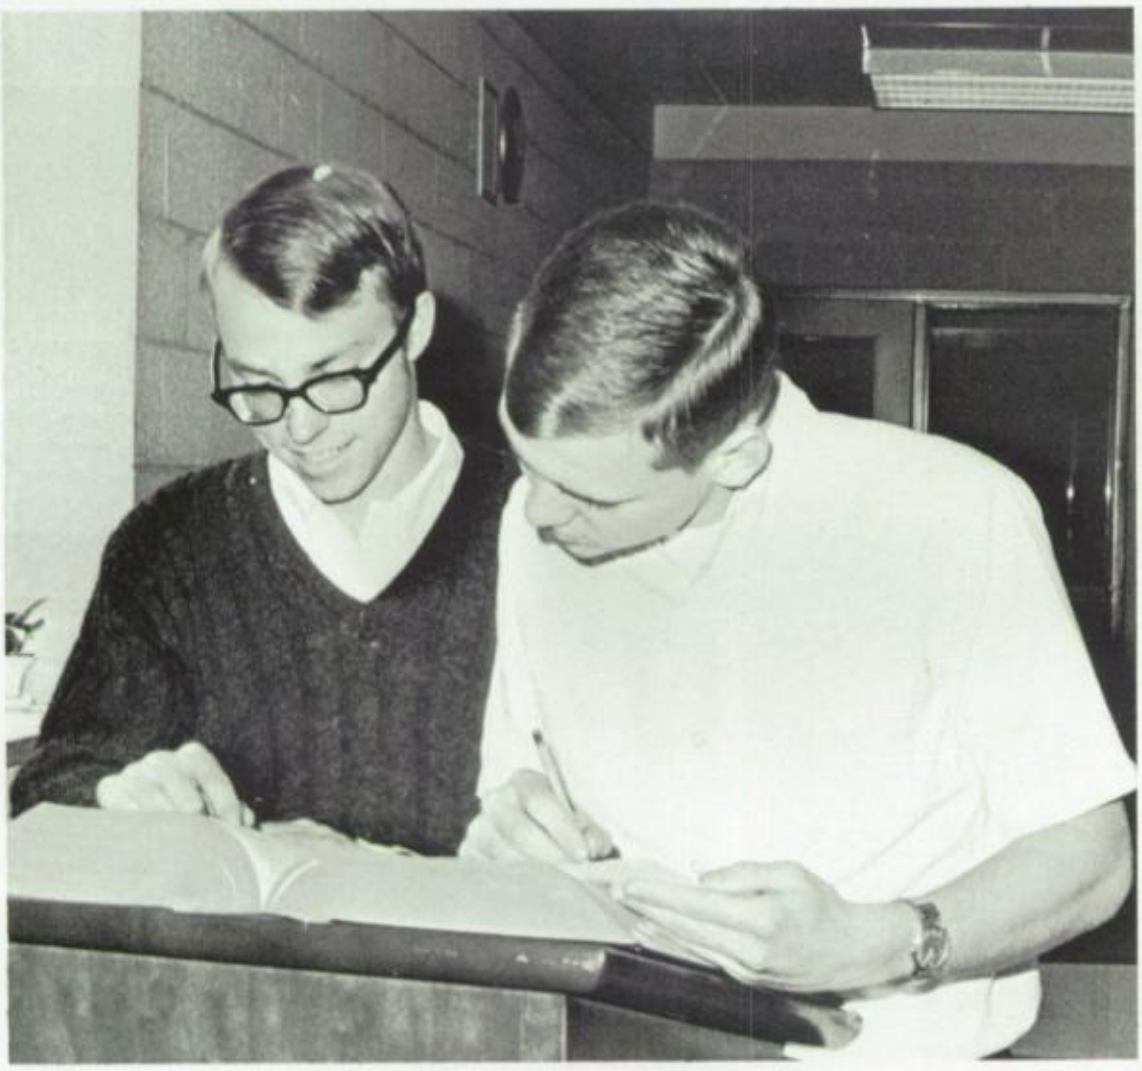
The boys in metal shop put all the equipment to good use.

"It has to be up there somewhere," says Mr. McNally, the government and history teacher, wonderingly.



"I won't beat you really!" says Mr. Kracium, the Orientation teacher.

Miss Flora Watt teaches Junior High social studies and Library Usage, a new class just added this year.

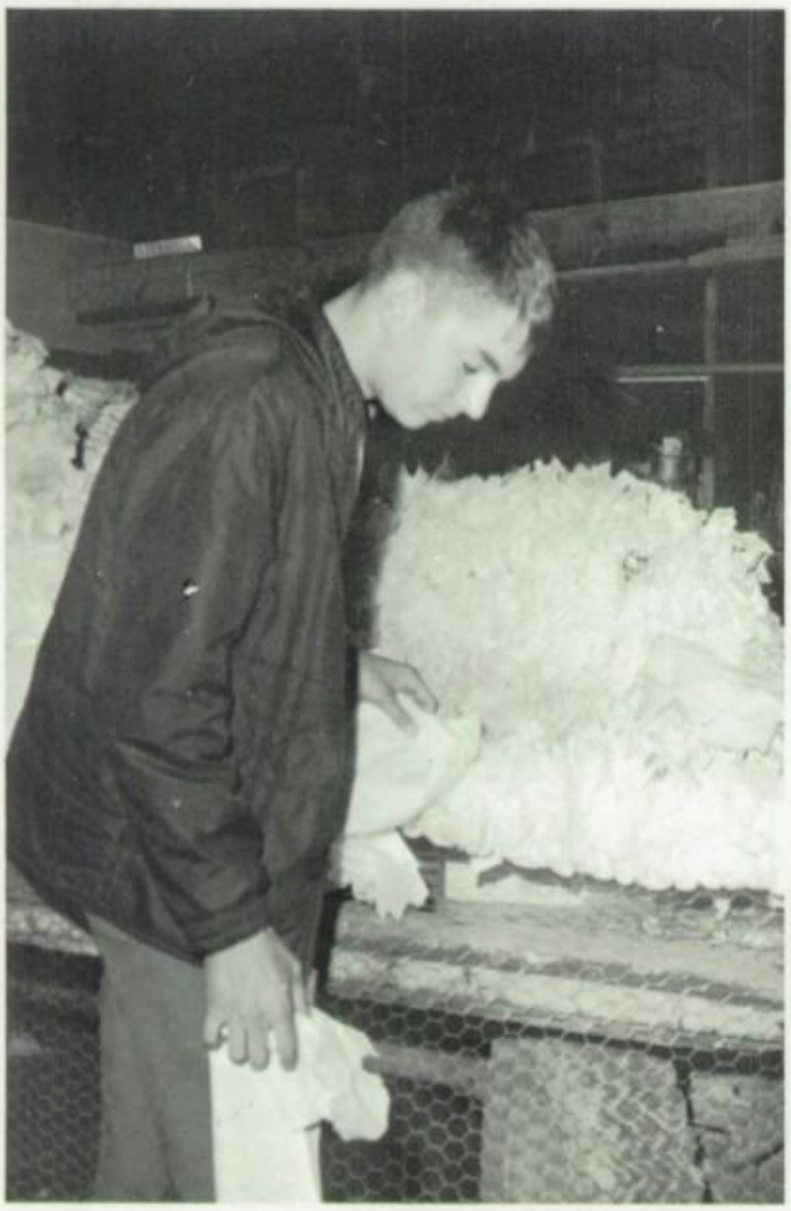


The dictionaries get plenty of use by the students.

"Come on fellows, one of us has to give."

Boys and girls talking together - a very common sight!

The first ones in the lunch line are always the ones who run!



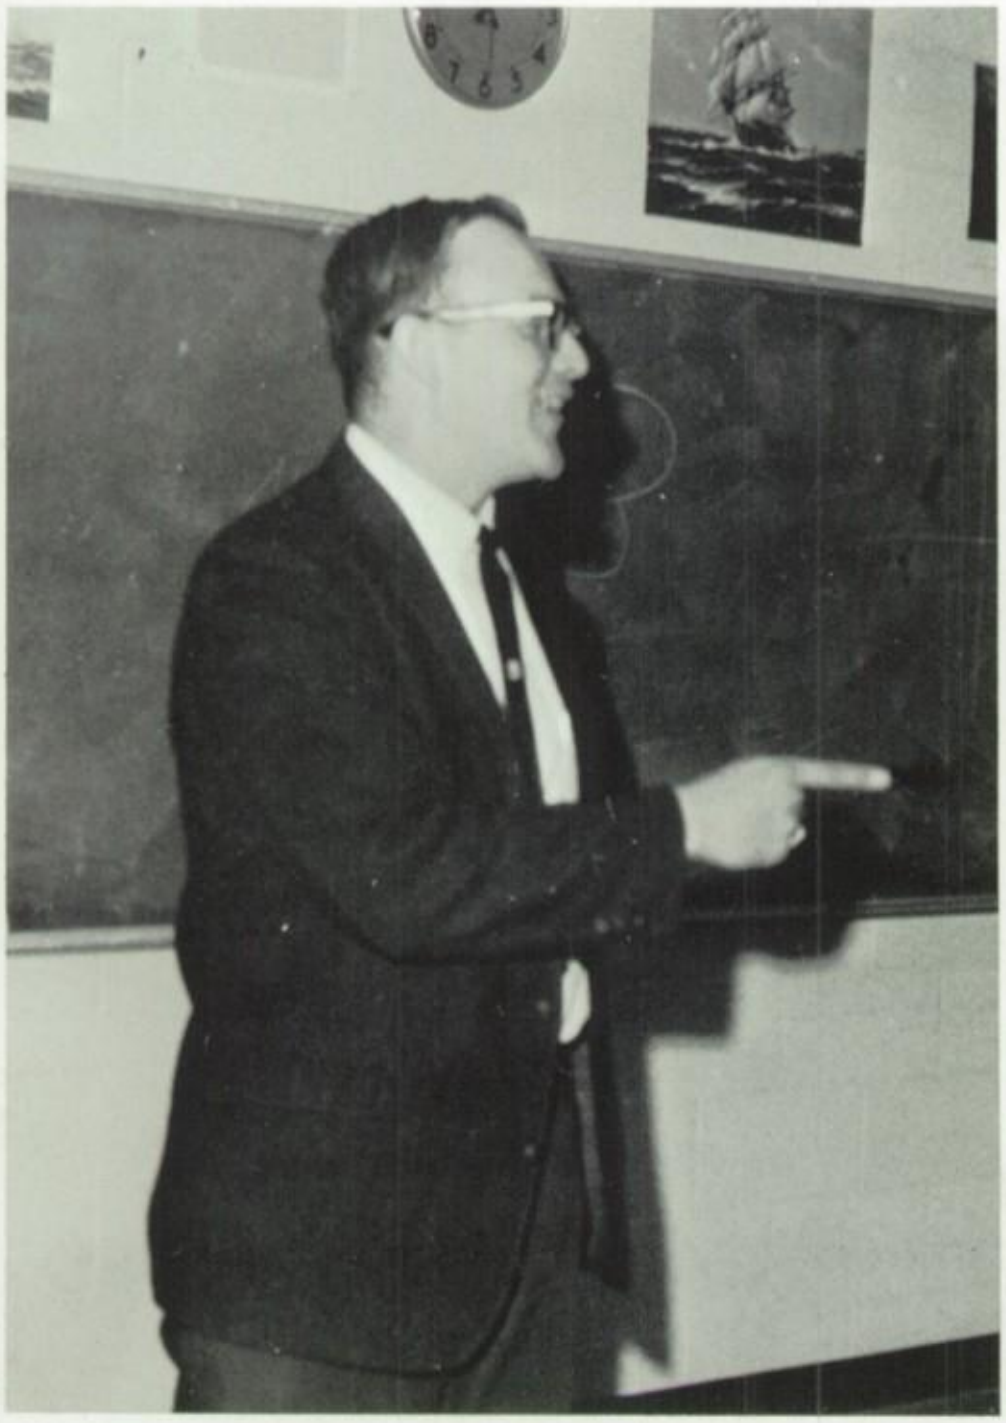
"I think I am going to be sick."

Typical art students at work.

Mrs. Sally Brown, a Jr. High science teacher.

Mr. Marv Hollenbeck, one of our substitutes.

Dale slowly sinks into the silverware, while the group looks on.



Gerald Barr instructs (?) ninth graders in Orientation as well as a girls Physical Education class and coaching.

WELL . . .

Mr. Dickinson is the (father) of English and Speech.

Now let me see, the answer is ah???

Mr. Maher teaches typing, bookkeeping, and general business.

I'm too good for the class so I get to do my work in the hall.

During the first semester, Lanny Janes taught English and during the second semester he helped Mr. Groat with counseling.

Mr. Peter teaches Metals and drafting.

WHAT IS THIS???

Mr. Gary Nepper, the Art teacher, works diligently on a project.

Who needs chairs?

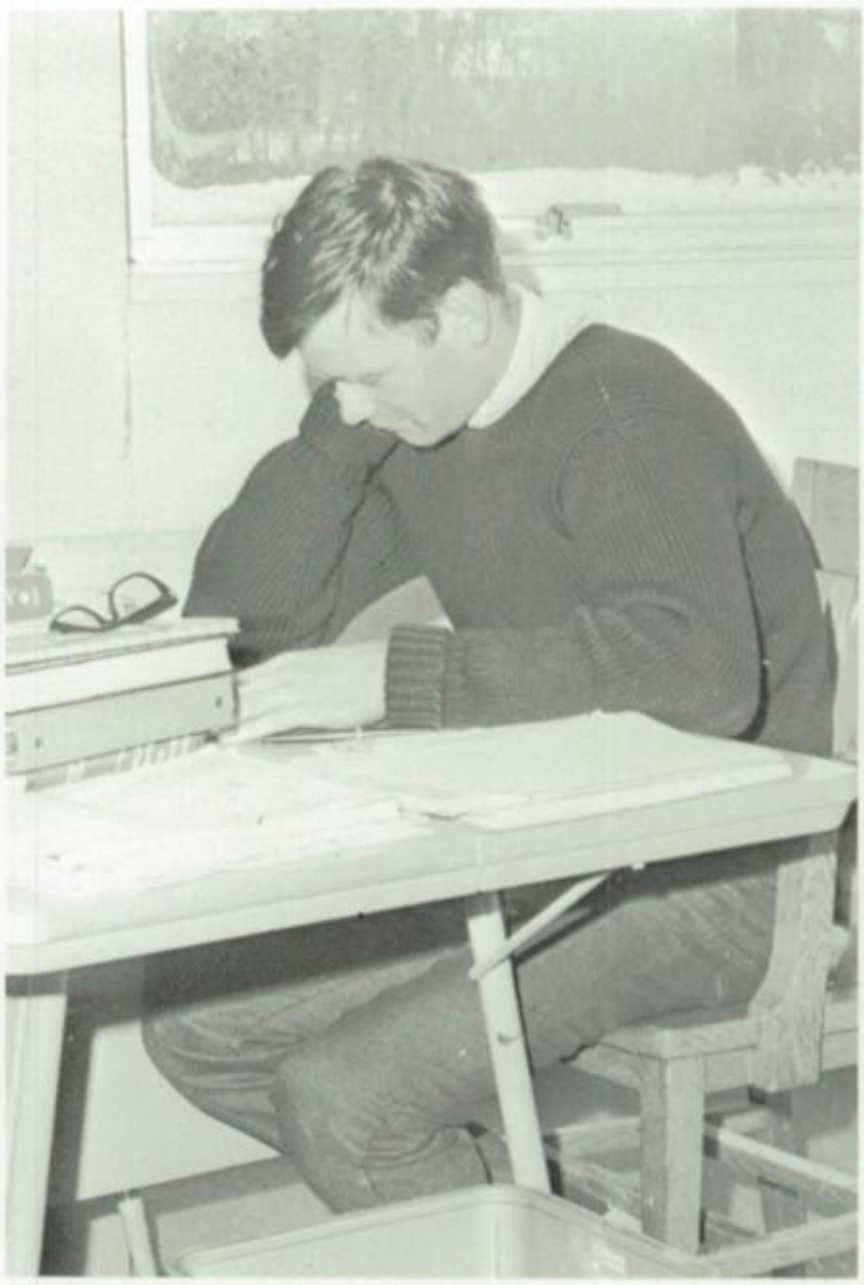
We sure wish the teacher would stand at the front of the room; it gives us a kink in our necks.

Mrs. Ross, the high school librarian, has a rough time keeping all the boisterous students quiet in the library.

Mrs. Campbell can tell you anything about soccer, tumbling, or basketball as she teaches girls' physical education.

Mr. David Janes put out two fantastic plays this year as well as teaching journalism and English.

Mr. Maki settles down for a bit of work after an exciting Junior High Social Studies class.



Mr. Brydon teaches World History and Physical Education. He is known for his use of the "overhead."

You can't expect us to sing it perfect on the first time through.

SUSAN KELLY

Leading the Class of 1967-68 were two girls who showed superior scholastic ability and leadership qualities. Due to the amount of unlimited activities, both were able to retain at least a 3.5 average.

This year's Valedictorian, Miss Kayleen Dorland with a 3.7 average. During her school years, Kayleen was an outstanding student in band. She participated in Tri-County Honors Band, District Clinic Band, and State Solo and Ensemble besides being historian and treasurer of the Marlette High School Band. Kayleen was also outstanding in choir; she participated in the Madrigal Club and individual groups.

Next in line was Miss Susan Kelly who retained a 3.5 average. Susan participated in Math and Science Club, F.T.A., Librarians' Club, and the Senior Play. Susan earned the honor of being Salutatorian.

ATHLETICS

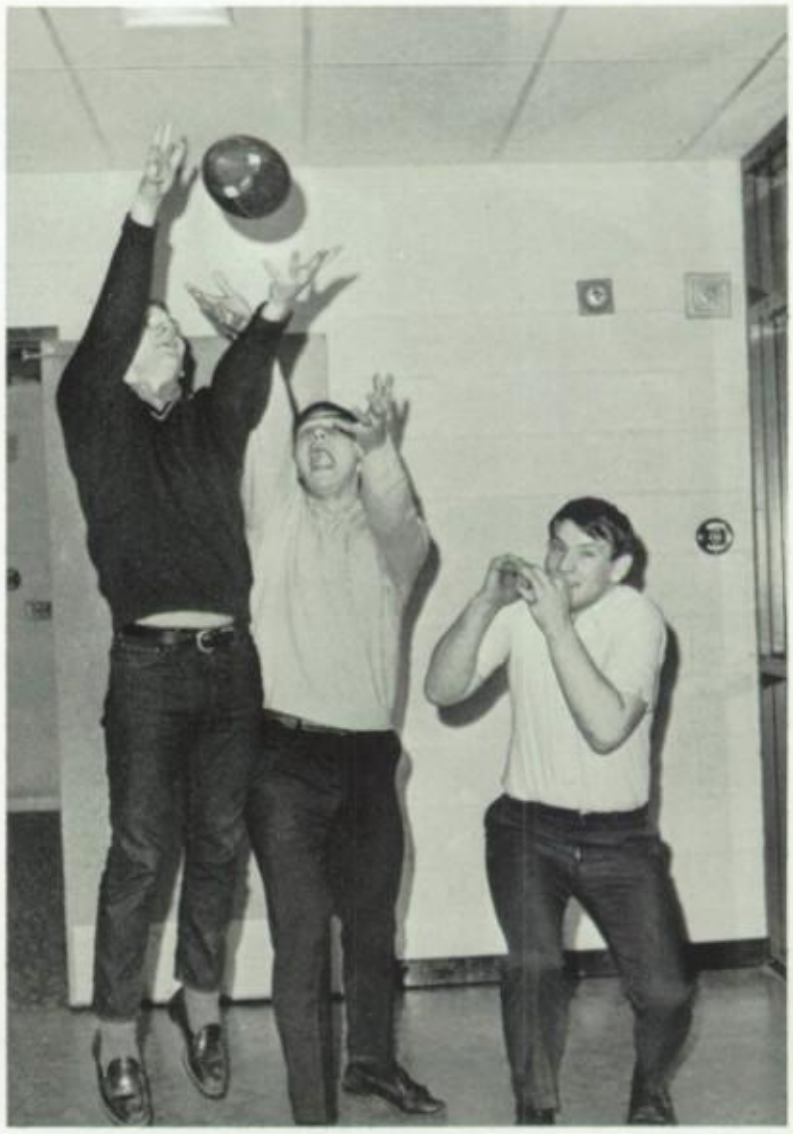
The Red Raiders didn't have the most successful season, in fact, it was quite a let down to what they had anticipated in pre-season practice. But over all, the team was better than their record shows. With the right breaks, they could have reversed the record.

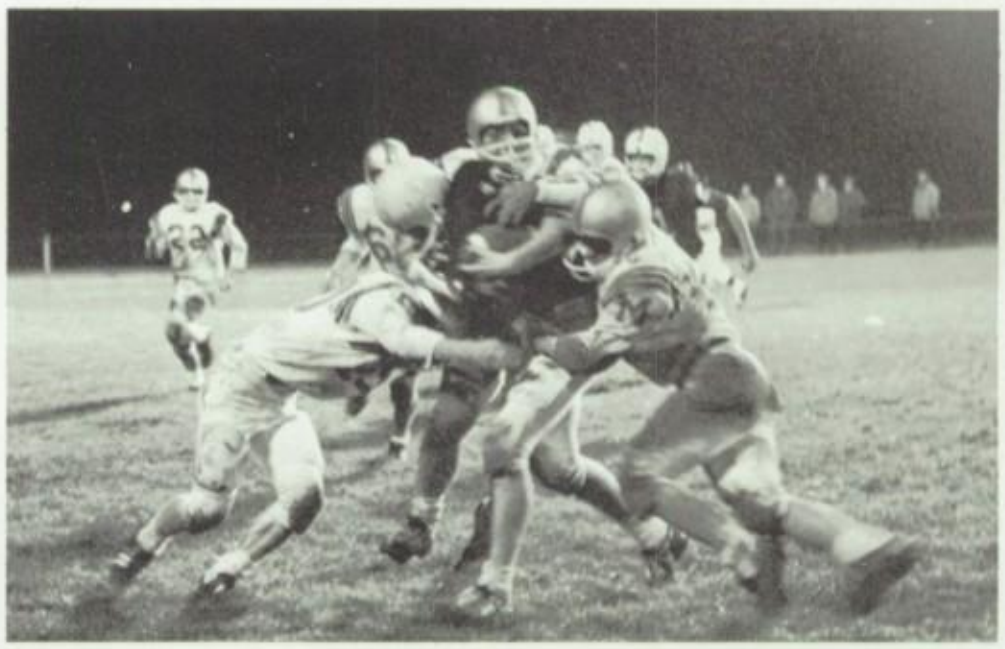
North Branch	7	6
Sandusky	7	7
Vassar	20	6
Caro	18	0
Cass City	0	14
Laker	20	6
Frankenmuth	27	6
Bad Axe	30	7

Three of our players received recognition in the league. Dave Pollak, all conference first team defense linebacker. Tom Beltz, all conference first team defense tackle. All area honorable mention offense tackle. Ed Freund, all conference honorable mention offensive end and defense end, all area honorable mention, offense end.



Dave and Bill make the tackle while the rest of the Raiders come up to help.

Gang tackling help to keep the Lakers scoreless for three periods.



And then there was the spaghetti squad.

The second team gets their chance.

Here come the rest of the Raiders

Marlettes' defense turns Lakers outside

Starting Five and Coach Barr

Dave Pollak, Dan Niebauer, Dave Burnison, Marty Blackmer, and Gary Johnson.

Basketball has found its way back into Marlette as the Raiders finished 2nd in the league. With a fine effort from everybody, the team ended the season with a 12-7 record. Marty Blackmer was voted the Most Valuable Player and nailed down a spot on the all conference team with his fine ball playing.

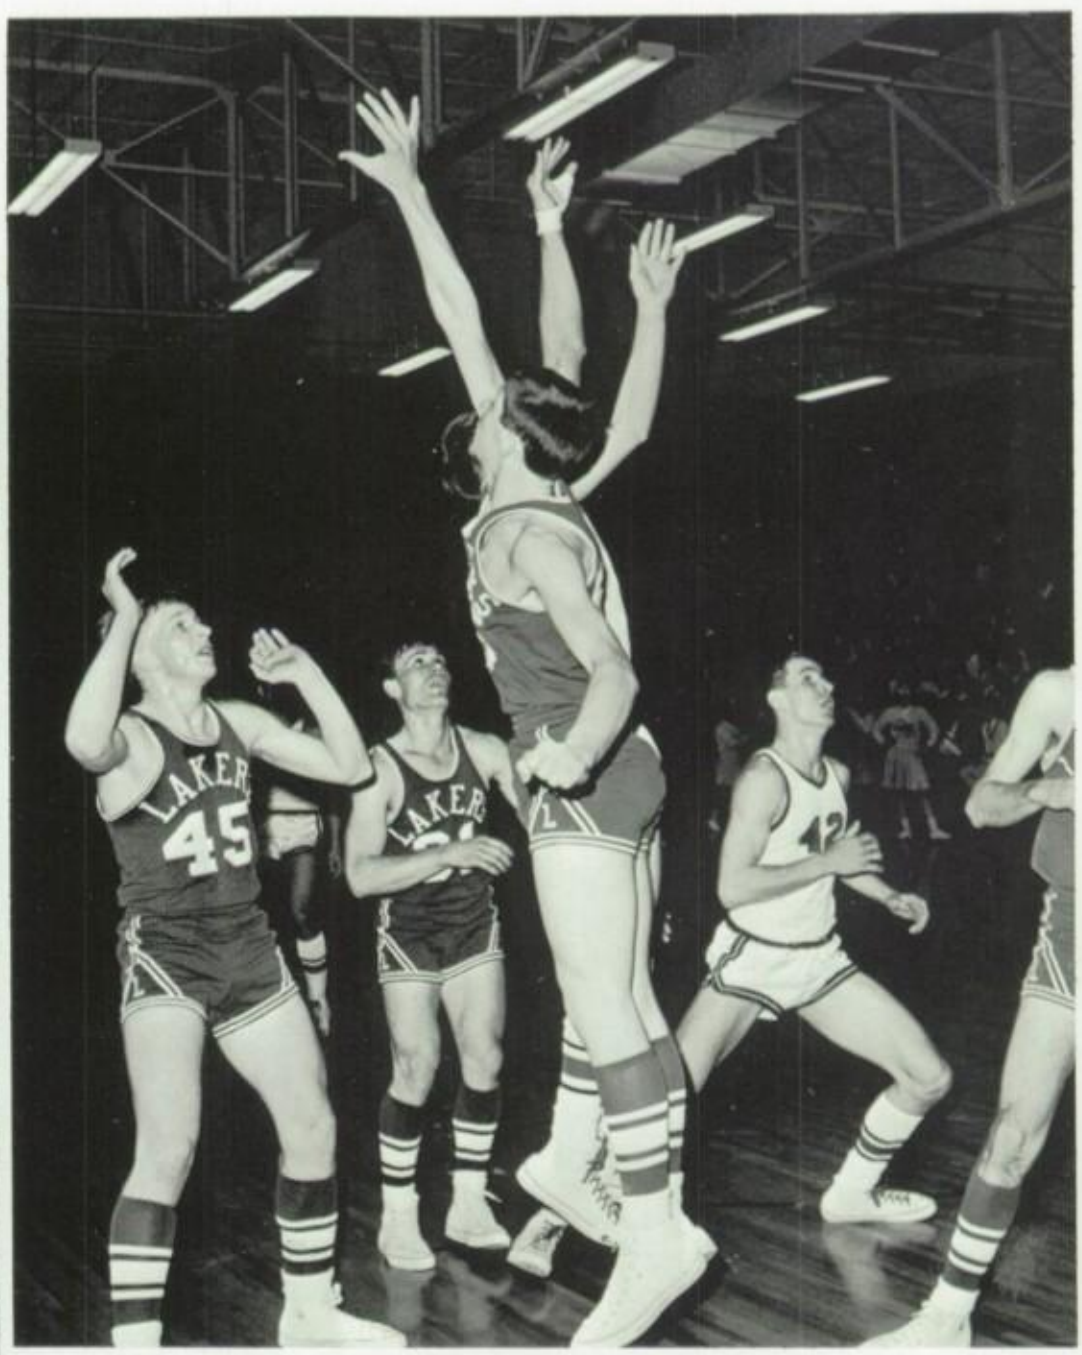
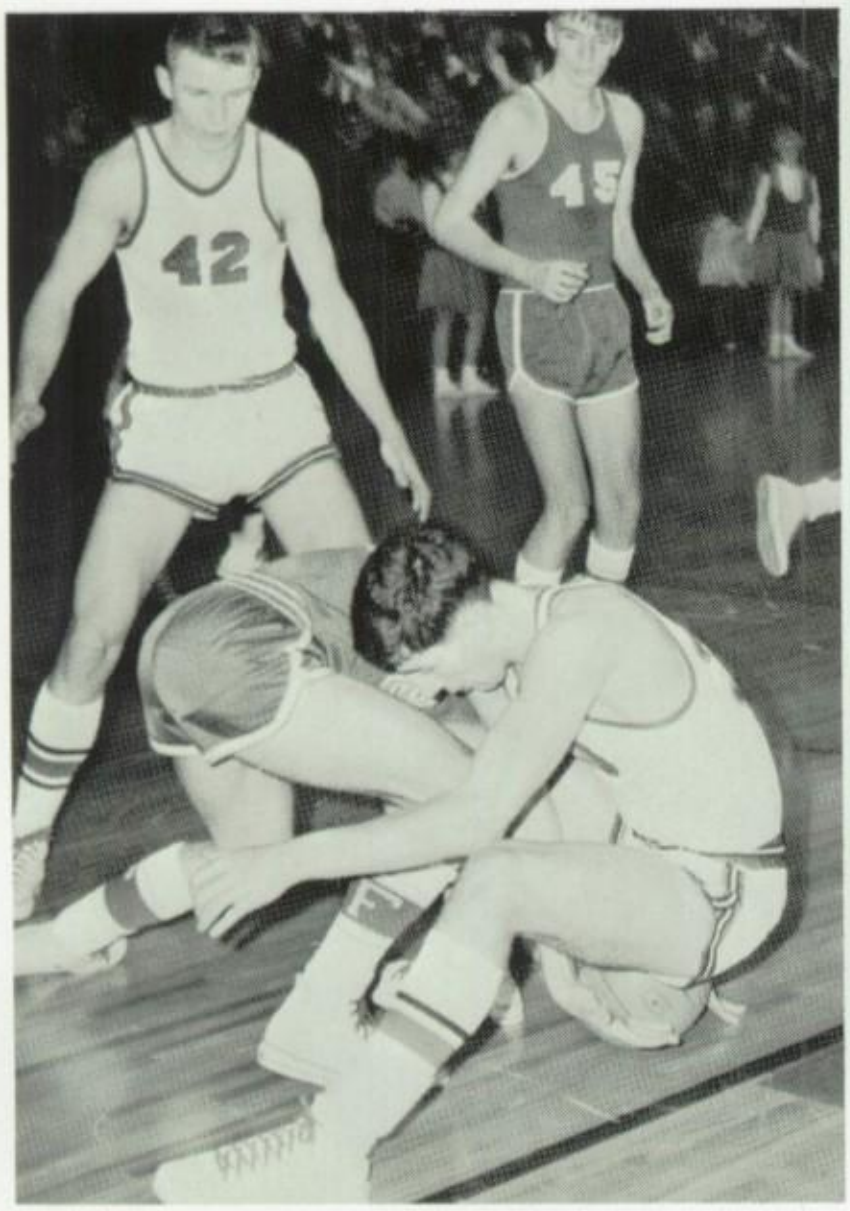
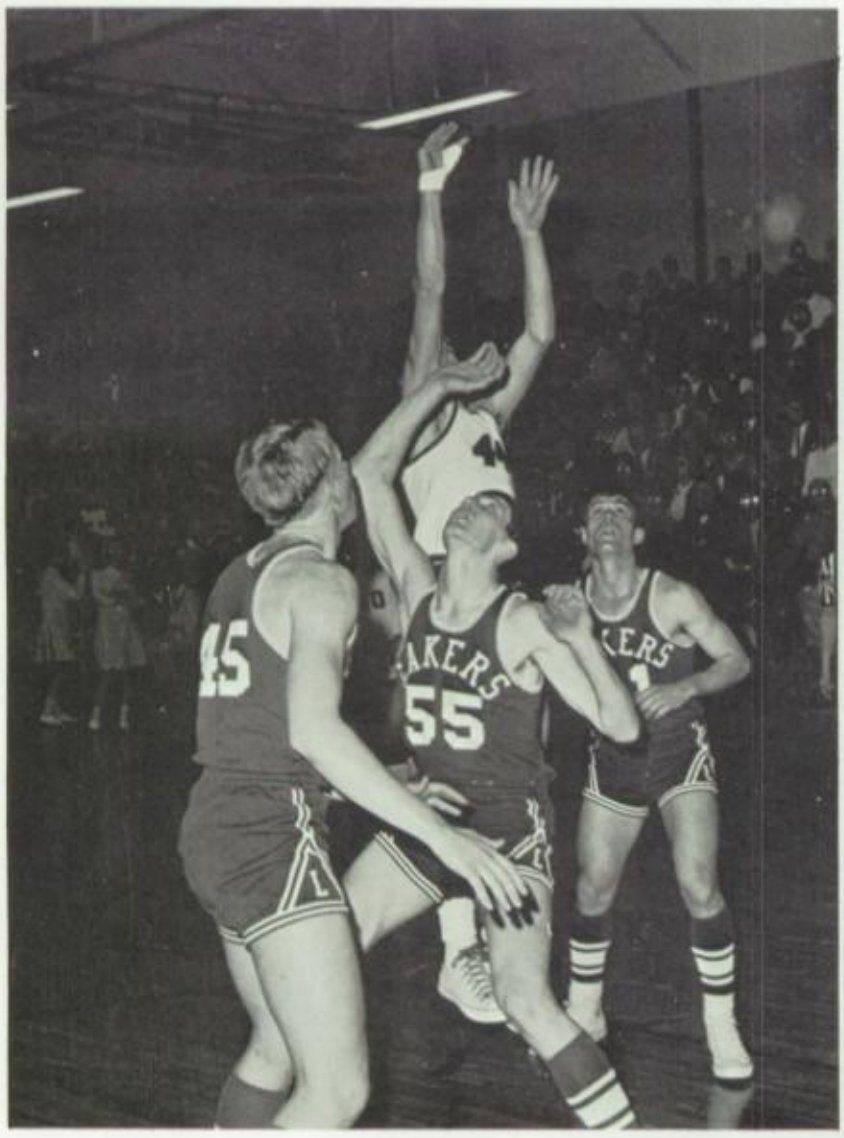
School spirit, yeah, yeah, yeah!

A jump with Lakers for the ball.



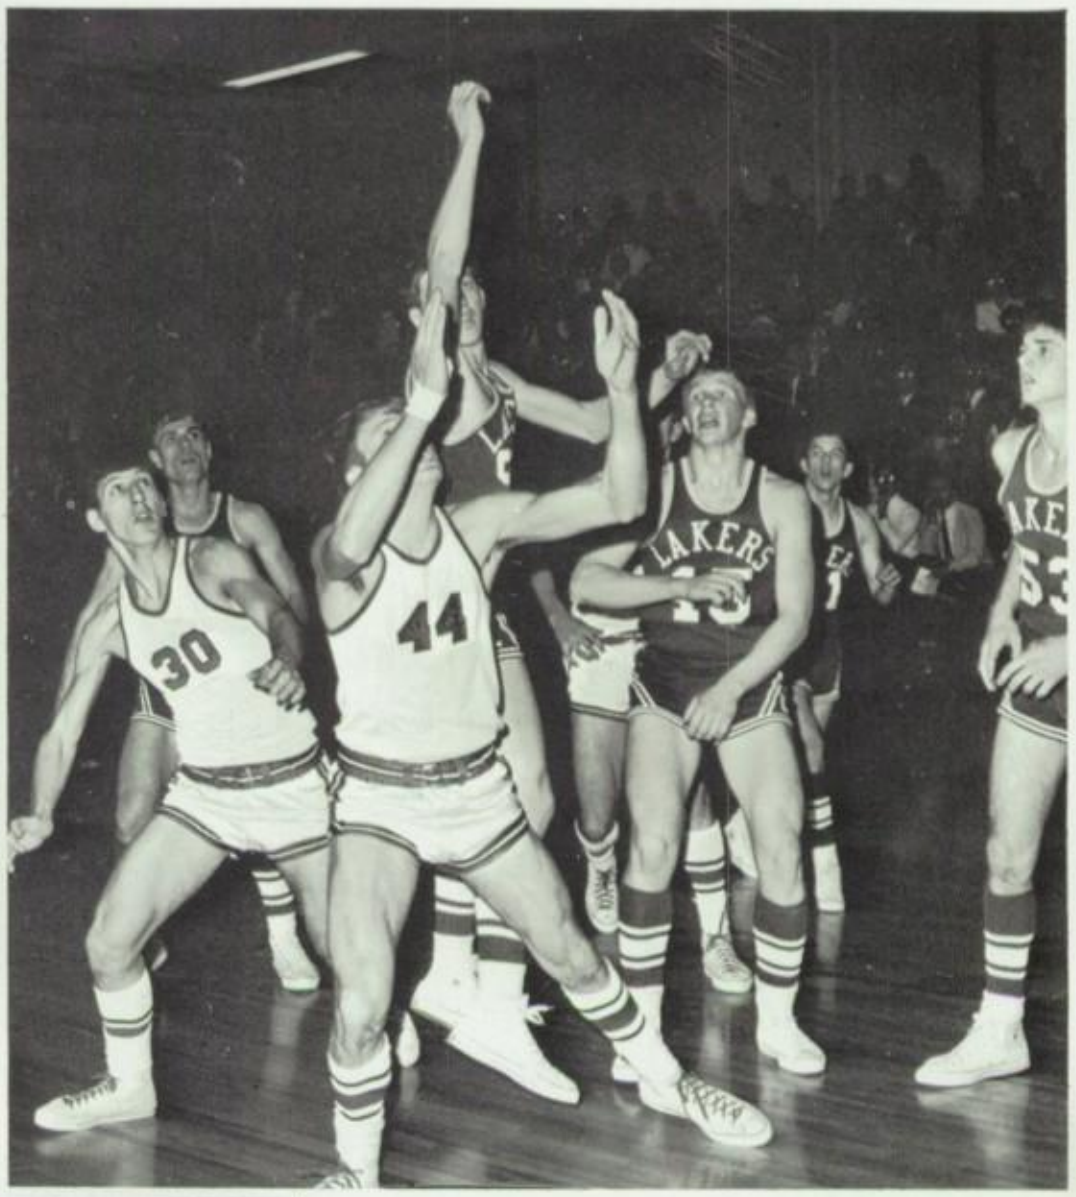
Dan struggles for the ball.

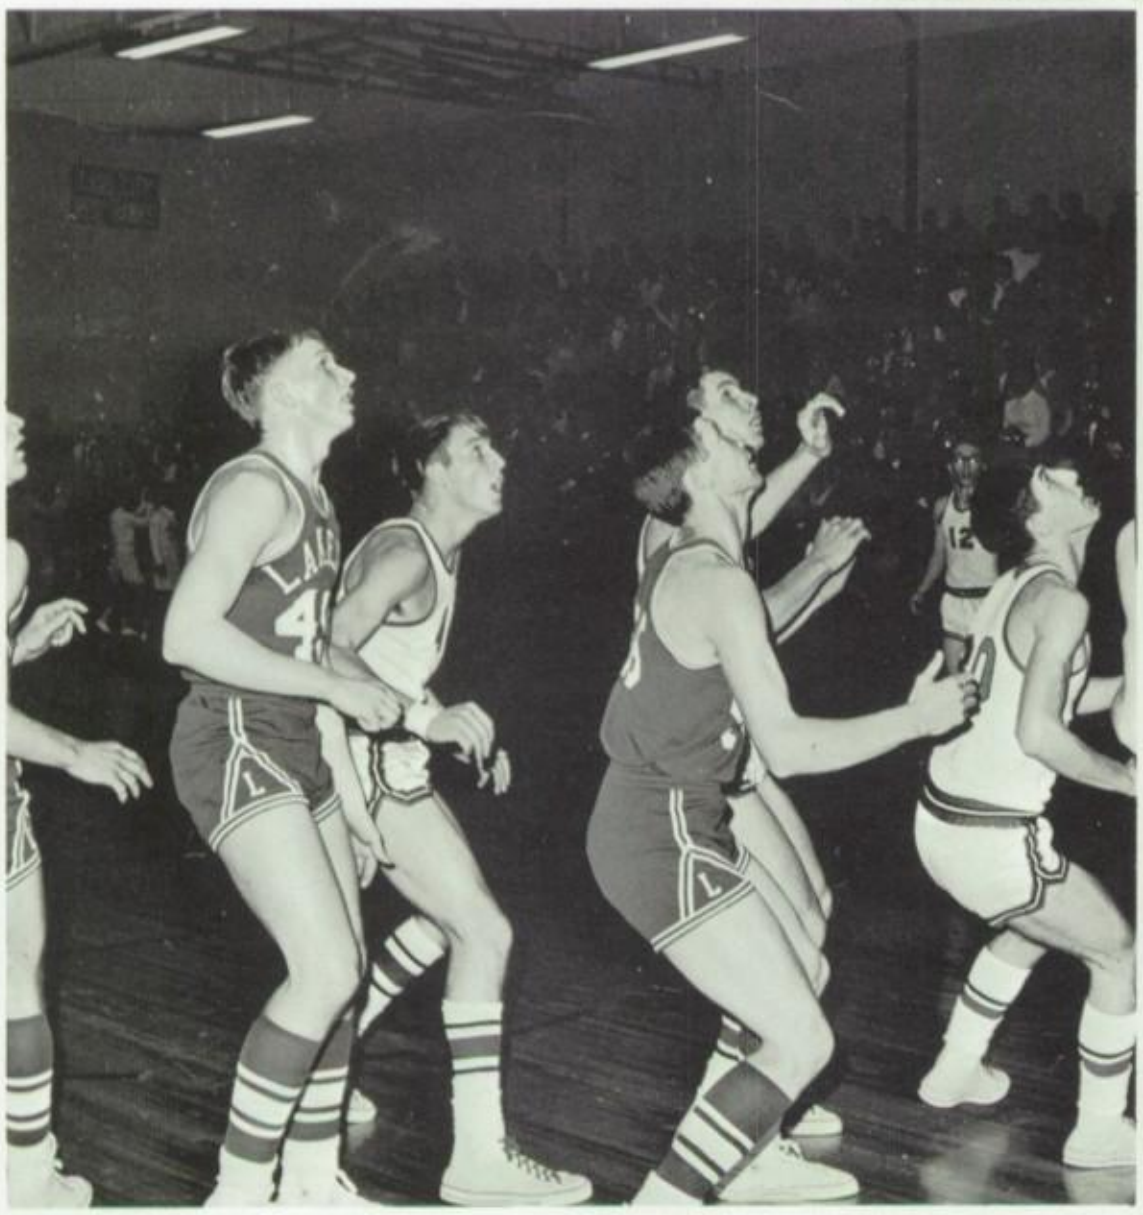




Up, Up, and Away!

Danny and Marv wait for the rebound.





Get that ball!

Marty throws in 2 points.

Inspired by Coach Walkers' will to win, the JV's posted a 9 and 5 record. Throughout the entire season the boy's played top-notch ball, but it wasn't until they got a few games under their belt that they began to play as a team. After that happened there wasn't a team that could come close to our raiders'. GOOD JOB MEN!!!

Mike is all set to hit a home run.

It's the wind up and the pitch.

Once again the Track Team is lacking in depth. Despite the lack of interest by the rest of the male student body, the trackers are expecting to finish high in the league. Good luck, men.
